

Jackie Mahoney has worked at The Community Foundation for the Greater Capital Region for sixteen years as the Vice President of Programs and now Executive Vice President. In this position, she coordinates thirteen competitive grant cycles and oversees $5M in grants made from the Foundation each year. In addition, Jackie works with several local private foundations that have contracted with the Community Foundation for grantmaking services. Jackie began her career at the United Way as a Community Building Associate, and she holds an MBA from The College of Saint Rose and a BA in Communication from SUNY Albany.